1/ Download 1st Connections

Networking is easiest with people you already know.

LinkedIn will send you a list of them!

Here's how:

1. Go to "Me" > Settings & Privacy
2. Choose "Get A Copy of Your Data"
3. Click the 2nd Option
4. Select "Connections"
5. Request the Archive

4/ See Who's Hiring

Many hiring managers post about open roles.

Here's how to find them:

1. Search for: Target Job Title + Hiring
2. Filter for "Posts"
3. Go to All Filters > Author Company
4. Add your target companies

Apply for the role and DM the person who posted it!

5/ Cultural Research

Ex-employees can give you the scoop on culture.

How to find them:

1. Run a blank search
2. Add your target company to the "Past Company" filter

That'll show you every person who used to work at your target company.

Find ones who left for a better opp!

6/ Find Salaries In Colorado

Most companies won't post a salary range.

But Colorado passed a law that requires them to.

So search for your target job in Colorado.

Then adjust the salary range for the cost of living in your area.

Now you have more accurate salary data!
